Market Pizza and Hunters Helping the Hungry Team Up Again January 12-14 (Friday to Sunday)

Local venison is not something typically available at area restaurants, however on January 12-14th it will be featured at Market Pizza in the Stockton Market. The special food event is a part of a fundraising effort on behalf of Hunters Helping the Hungry in Hunterdon County.

Rotarians Megan Jones-Holt, Clinton Sunrise Rotary, and Lester Giese, North Hunterdon Rotary, have teamed up once again to raise money for Hunters Helping the Hungry(HHH) and continue to bring awareness to Rotary's Hunger in Hunterdon Campaign.

Megan, Partner and Chef of Market Pizza, uses her passion of creating unique food experiences to host the event. All artisan gourmet pizzas are personal sized with creative weekly specials such as Shrimp and Grits, Brussel Sprouts with Pistachios, and Cranberry Bacon. Market Pizza was named 2017 Hunterdon Happenings' Best Pizza and Jones-Holt was just nominated by Edible Jersey www.ediblejersey.ediblecommunities.com Local Heroes for Food Artisan.

Les, is an originating member of the 501c3 non profit organization formed in 1997. Area hunters donate their deer to select NJ State Health Department inspected HHH partner butchers. The meat is then distributed through NORWESCAP. All money raised goes towards the processing of the venison, with over 1.6 Million meals donated to date.

The venison that will be used has been donated by Mark Charbonneau, board member and processed by Game Butchers on Route 31 in Lebanon. The meat and event has been approved by the New Jersey Division of Fish and Wildlife, the State of NJ Health Department and the Hunterdon County Health Department.

For each venison pizza purchased, proceeds will go to the Hunters Helping the Hungry organization.

Market Pizza is located in the Stockton Market at 19 Bridge Street Stockton, NJ. For more information on the event go to www.facebook.com/marketpizza
