Donations Aid Twenty five families affected by Union Hill Fire

December 20, 2013

Eighteen families were left homeless after the devastating fire on November 23, 2013 at the Union Hill Condos. Mayor Michele McBride of Union Township and Mayor Janice Kovach of the Town of Clinton reached out to Megan Jones-Holt of Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club to ask for assistance in helping these families and managing donations.

The Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club responded immediately and set up the Union Hill Fire Fund. We are accepting donations of checks and gift cards. To date, we have received donations from various community members, other Rotary Clubs, Town of Clinton employees and the Clinton Public School Teachers.

The club to date has distributed close to $11,000.00 to the 18 owners and seven renters affected and the donations still are coming in. Today more gift cards were picked up at the Town of Clinton municipal building.

"We tried to get some of the donations to the families for Thanksgiving, but it was more involved than anticipated. We are so happy to be able to get support to them in time for Christmas," stated Megan Jones-Holt, Clinton Town resident.

If you would like to help these families, please send checks (made out to Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club) and/or gift cards to:

Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club
P.O. Box 5435
Clinton, New Jersey 08809

We'd like to Thank all the donors for their generosity with helping your neighbors in need.

Megan Jones-Holt
