PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

From President Ira

President Ira wanted to pass along Best Wishes to all Rotarians and their families and to wish you a Happy & Healthy New Year! He also wanted to share the following exciting information:

- Supporting the Flemington Boro: Our club has pledged $2000 towards bicycle racks.
- Clean Water: Our club will be participating in a Global Grant that will provide clean water and education to the people of Honduras.
- Seeking New Members: We are continuing our efforts towards recruiting new members. We will have a Rotary Club table at the upcoming Soup Cook-Off.
- Exploring a New Event: We are looking at a new event idea. A suggestion was to have a county wide writing competition for Elementary and Middle School students. Ira is looking for interested members to join a sub-committee with him to see if this can come to fruition.

- Club Assembly: Please bring your ideas and feedback to our next Club Assembly, which will occur at our January 22nd meeting at Bistro 61.

Donations Aid Twenty five families affected by Union Hill Fire
December 20, 2013

Eighteen families were left homeless after the devastating fire on November 23, 2013 at the Union Hill Condos. Mayor Michele McBride of Union Township and Mayor Janice Kovach of the Town of Clinton reached out to Megan Jones-Holt of Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club to ask for assistance in helping these families and managing donations.

The Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club responded immediately and set up the Union Hill Fire Fund. We are accepting donations of checks and gift cards. To date, we have received donations from various community members, other Rotary Clubs, Town of Clinton employees and the Clinton Public School Teachers.

The club to date has distributed close to $11,000.00 to the 18 owners and seven renters affected and the donations still are coming in. Today more gift cards were picked up at the Town of Clinton municipal building.

"We tried to get some of the donations to the families for Thanksgiving, but it was more involved than anticipated. We are so happy to be able to get support to them in time for Christmas," stated Megan Jones-Holt, Clinton Town resident.

If you would like to help these families, please send checks (made out to Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club) and/or gift cards to:

Clinton Sunrise Rotary Club
P.O. Box 5435
Clinton, New Jersey 08809

We'd like to Thank all the donors for their generosity with helping your neighbors in need.
