Past President Ira wanted to share the information that the Hunterdon Medical Center Foundation will be presenting Flemington Rotary with a $1000 check at the Wed, 9/10/2014 club meeting. The donation is to support our clubs participation in an International Global Grant (Honduran Water & Sanitation Project).

HONDURAN WATER & SANITATION PROJECT RECEIVES GLOBAL GRANT

by Douglas Rupert

Rotary Club of Milford, NH

July 29, 2014

The Milford, New Hampshire and the Danli, Honduras Rotary Clubs are pleased to announce that The Rotary Foundation has approved a Global Grant which, when completed, will improve the health of 425 families - including many children - by providing them with clean water, sanitation, and hygiene education. This project will serve nine dispersed, remote communities in the rural municipality of Trojes, Honduras, located along the Nicaraguan border, about three hours northeast of Danli. The total cost of the project is $188,000, of which $138,300 was funded by Rotary Clubs, Rotary Districts and The Rotary Foundation. The remaining funds will be provided by a Native Energy carbon credit program.

The goal of the project is to virtually eliminate water borne diarrheal disease in the communities by providing practical, simple sustainable tools, including appropriate point-of-use filtration technology, toilets; hygiene and sanitation training to individuals, teachers and communities; and on-going monitoring and follow-up.

In addition to the Milford Rotary Club, five other New Hampshire Rotary Clubs supported this project - Nashua, Nashua West, Souhegan Valley, Monadnock and Jaffrey-Rindge as well as the District Foundation Committee. Fourteen other Rotary Clubs from Maine, New York, New Jersey, Montana, Oregon and Washington also partnered on this project.

Milford Rotarian, Doug Rupert, who spearheaded this project, said "In a country where 80% of all known illnesses are caused from drinking contaminated water, this project will help address that issue for 425 families. We are pleased that Rotary, and the Milford Club in particular, can be part of the solution."

Pure Water for the World, Inc. (PWW), who has been working in Honduras for 12 years, has been selected as the implementing organization. Pure Water was founded in 1999 by the Brattleboro, Vermont Rotary Club, and in that time has provided over 500,000 people with a source of clean drinking water.

Hello from Past Flemington Rotarian, BRUCE MORGAN

We received the following email from former Flemington Rotarian, Bruce Morgan. Bruce had also served as Club President from 2000-2001:

Inasmuch as I have not lived in Flemington for 10 years, it is probably best if I be removed from the Rotary mailing list, just to help you clean up the clutter. Do give my best to the club members, whom I remember with fond affection. I now live in Kansas City, MO in retirement, and am currently living in Paris, France, where I am serving as Visiting Pastor at The American Church in Paris. Nice gig. I do weddings primarily - about 130 in my six month tenure. My wife, Nancy, is with me, and we will celebrate our 52nd wedding anniversary in Paris in December. Thanks! Bruce Morgan

DOUBLE VACCINES 'COULD HASTEN THE END OF POLIO'

Online Article from the BBC Health News

A special thanks to Ken Skowronek for seeing the following article and sharing it with everyone:

Double vaccines 'could hasten the end of polio'

By James Gallagher

August 21, 2014

Health editor, BBC News website

Click Here for the Online Article

Using both types of polio vaccine could speed up efforts to free the world of the disease, research suggests.

The oral vaccine is leading the fight to eradicate polio, but trials in India show an additional injection of inactivated virus boosts immunity.

The World Health Organization said the findings, published in the journal Science, were "truly historic".

The disease, which is spread through contaminated faeces, can cause paralysis and even death.

Fighting polio has been one of the biggest success stories in global health.

In 1988, there were 350,000 cases of polio in more than 125 countries.

The disease is now widespread in just three countries - Nigeria, Afghanistan and Pakistan - and cases have fallen by more than 99%.

Vaccines

Two drops of the oral vaccine, which contains a weakened polio virus, is the preferred tool in eradication efforts because it is cheap and gives resistance in the digestive tract to lower transmission of the virus.

The injected vaccine works largely in the bloodstream.

"But the oral vaccine is less effective in exactly those places we'd like it to work," one of the researchers, Prof Nicholas Grassly, of Imperial College London, told the BBC.

It is thought other infections may interfere with the vaccine.

The solution has been multiple vaccination. As part of India's successful eradication campaign, some children received 30 doses by the age of five.

Trials in India showed using an injection of inactivated virus as a booster jab was more effective than multiple drops.

However, the biggest challenge in banishing the disease for good is not the choice of vaccine, but getting to children in conflict-ridden areas.

The security issues can be huge and vaccination programmes are even used as a political weapon.

In 2012, the Taliban said vaccinations in the North and South Waziristan regions of Pakistan were banned until the US ended drone strikes.

Prof Grassly argues: "If you have limited access, you want the biggest return. If you can go in with inactivated and oral polio vaccine, you will achieve a lot more than if you just have brief access with oral polio vaccine."

The double-vaccine approach is already being used in parts of Nigeria and will soon be introduced into Pakistan also.

Dr Bruce Aylward, the World Health Organization assistant director general for polio, said: "The results of this study are truly historic in the context of global polio eradication.

"This study has revolutionised our understanding of inactivated polio vaccine and how to use it in the global eradication effort to ensure children receive the best and quickest protection possible from this disease."
