BETTY ZULLO at the Hunterdon Care Center

1/3/2017 Update From President D.J.

I wanted to share that Betty Zullo is in Hunterdon Care Center (HCC) for respite care for two weeks. Her caregiver had to go away and John was unable to get someone to give her the quality care she needs. Her mind is sharp as a tack and she would love to receive visitors. The HCC is located at 1 Leisure Court here in Flemington just off Bartles Corner Road near Healthquest. John and his family are again so very grateful to the club for the support so please keep the calls and cards, etc coming. That is what our Rotary family is about!

Yours in Rotary,
D.J. Wright, President

Joint Fundraiser to Support HUNTERS HELPING THE HUNGRY
Venison Pizza available one weekend only in Stockton
January 13-15

Local venison is not something typically available at area restaurants, however on January 13-15th it will be, at Market Pizza in the Stockton Market. The event is a part of a fundraising effort on behalf of Hunters Helping the Hungry in Hunterdon County.

Rotarians Lester Giese, North Hunterdon Rotary, and Megan Jones-Holt, Clinton Sunrise Rotary, have teamed up to raise money for Hunters Helping the Hungry(HHH) and continue to bring awareness to the Hunger in Hunterdon Campaign.

Hunger in Hunterdon has been an awareness campaign with the six area Rotary clubs; Clinton Sunrise, Horizon-E, Flemington, Lambertville, North and Whitehouse for many years.

Les, is an avid hunter and saw a way to give back to the community by sharing his venison. He is an originating member of the 501c3 non profit organization formed in 1997. Area hunters donate their deer to select NJ State Health Department inspected HHH partner butchers. The meat is then distributed through NORWESCAP. All money raised goes towards the processing of the venison, with over 1.6 Million meals donated to date.

Megan, Partner and Chef of Market Pizza, will use her passion of creating unique food experiences to host the event. She recently acquired the Market Pizza and saw it as a fun way to raise funds for the organization. All artisan gourmet pizzas are personal sized with creative weekly specials such as Shrimp and Grits, Brussel Sprouts with Pistachios, and Cranberry Bacon.

The venison that will be used has been donated by Mark Charbonneau, board member and processed by Game Butchers on Route 31 in Lebanon. The meat and event has been approved by the New Jersey Division of Fish and Wildlife, the State of NJ Health Department and the Hunterdon County Health Department.

This fundraiser has a wide appeal to adventurous foodies and avid hunters. It will be the kick off to a four week of Wild Game featured pizzas. For each venison pizza purchased, a part of the proceeds will go to the Hunters Helping the Hungry organization. For those less adventurous and still want to participate you may select from the regular menu or visit any one of the other food purveyors located in the market and make a donation directly to the organization.

HHH members will be at the market to accept donations and answer any questions about the organization. The kick off Friday night will also feature the music of the TieDye Hillbilly Dance Band from 6-9PM.

Market Pizza is located in the Stockton Market 19 Bridge Street Stockton, NJ. For more information on the event go to www.facebook.com/marketpizza
Hunters Helping the Hungry donations may be mailed to P.O. Box 587, Lebanon, New Jersey 08833 or through Paypal on our website. www.huntershelpingthehungry.org.
