Dear President D.J.,

It was great to catch up at the Rotary meeting last Wednesday in Flemington. Thanks to you and members for your wonderful hospitality and for the organization of our brief, but very interesting visit.

A special thanks to Father Harry Mazujian for his hospitality and for meeting us and acting as our guide and chauffeur. I would be very grateful if you could forward this mail to him.

It was interesting to learn about, Flemington, Hunterdon County, the central high school, Main Street, courthouse, the famous trial and the history.

Also thank you for all the gifts, including the anniversary plate, history book and Italian cookies.

If you or any members are heading down to Atlanta, you will probably meet many Aussies there including a significant delegation from D9800.

Once again, thanks for everything. Best regards,
