Clinton has its first Little Free Library: TAKE A BOOK-LEAVE A BOOK

By the Clinton Sunrise Rotary

The Clinton Sunrise Rotary (CSR) is bringing the first Little Free Library to Clinton this fall. Sponsored by CSR and constructed by Paul Arnold of Clinton and Ben Damiano of Califon, The Little Free Library box is modeled after the Clinton Municipal Building and will be placed in "Allie's Way" in Clinton Town to honor Allie McGaheran, former Mayor who served out of the Municipal Building and who was also a teacher.

The Little Free Library (LFL) is an International Organization founded in 2014 by Rotarian Todd Bol which, once registered on their site, allows you to use their logo "Take a Book, Leave a Book" and be placed on their map locating all the 50,000 LFL in the world. Locally we have LFL in Flemington, Califon, Lebanon, Washington and Clinton Township. Libraries are in Towns and on community lawns where they are monitored to keep them neat, with no books left outside the box or in the surrounding site and the materials appropriate for both children and adults. The box is weatherproof and large enough to accommodate many books. You are welcome to just take a book or replace it with one you would like to donate. The program is intended to encourage people of all ages to read, share their favorite books with other people and perhaps pick up a book themselves! THIS IS NOT A COUNTY LIBRARY RETURN BOOK SITE.
